

Prayer for the Week

1. Dear Father, I refuse to be limited by the earthly system, for I bear the image of Christ, the Man from heaven, and I'm aligned with your will and your ways as it is in the Word. Thank you for my life in Christ. I walk in victory, being heavenly-minded and empowered by your Spirit, in Jesus' Name.

2. I activate the grace and power of God in my life. I affirm in faith that I'm graced to excel and fulfil my destiny in Christ. I'm sufficient in Christ's sufficiency, and His superabundant grace upon my life is sufficient for me in all things, in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

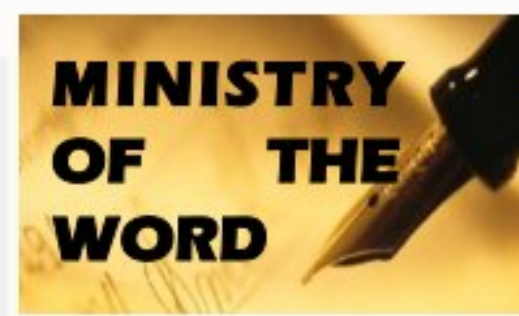

3. Dear Father, I thank you for the glorious life I've received in Christ Jesus. I keep my gaze on your Word, walking in the consciousness of my divine origin and heritage! Thank you for making me triumphant always, and in every place, in Jesus' Name.

4. Dear Father, thank you for confirming your Word with signs, blessings and miracles as we, your children, all go forth and preach your Word today. Many receive salvation and are converted as your Word comes to them in the power of the Spirit, in Jesus' Name.

5. Precious Father, I thank you for the authority in the Name of Jesus with which we prevail over Satan and his cohorts. By that authority, I cut off principalities and powers, rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places, from every sector, establishment and aspect of government in my nation, in Jesus' Name.

OUR YEAR OF GRACE & GLORY!

KEEP LOOKING...

James 1:25

But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed (James 1:25).

The Word of God is a mirror. The Bible says, “But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord” (2 Corinthians 3:18). When we look into the mirror of God, we see ourselves. We see the glory of God. The natural mirror portrays earthly reflections, but God's mirror, His Word, is the perfect mirror that shows you who you are and exactly how God sees you.

The more you look into the mirror of God, the more you're changed to become what you see. So, keep looking, because as you look, you're metamorphosed; your life becomes increasingly excellent. But if you take your eyes away, you'd live a confused life because you're looking at the wrong thing. Our opening verse says, “But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.”

James 1:22 says, “But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.” If you're a doer of the Word, when you look into God's mirror, you don't forget who you are. The one who doesn't do the Word has an identity crisis.

No matter the challenges you face and the troubles that may come your way, stick to the Word. Always remember what the Word says about you: you're more than a conqueror; greater is He that's in you than he that's in the world. Maintain this consciousness.

Remain blessed in the Lord!

EMBRACE THE PICTURE OF THE NEW YOU

And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God (1 Corinthians 6:11).

Did you know that as one who's born again, it's wrong for you to keep seeing yourself as “a sinner?” Many live with this mentality and it reveals why they're ineffective in their Christian walk. Now that you're born again, your life is new and divine; therefore, embrace the picture of the new you. You're the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus; as Jesus is, so are you in this world.

Have a greater consciousness of your new life in Christ. That life gives you power to live above sin. You may ask, “If this is true, why do I still do wrong things and think wrong thoughts?” It's because you haven't fully yielded and subjected yourself to the dominion of the Word, to live in, and by the Word.

It reminds of the account in 1 Corinthians 6:9-11, part of which we read as our theme verse. The Apostle Paul rebuked some of the Christians in Corinth because their way of life didn't reflect the new nature of righteousness they had received. Yet, he didn't call them “sinners.” He writes, “Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God” (1 Corinthians 6:9-11).

Notice he didn't say, “And such are some of you...”; rather, he says, “...and such were some of you,” because now that you're in Christ, you've been cleansed of all unrighteousness. You've been washed; separated from sin unto God, and declared righteous, in the Name of the Lord, and by the Spirit of our God!

What We See:

- A church where all races, tribes, tongues & ethnicity are united in Christ Jesus, impacted to demonstrate the values & culture of the Kingdom of God, doing the works of service & moving in the supernatural love of God.
- A church of chosen people living extraordinary lives, where every member longs to bring God's love to a hurting world, being trained, equipped and released to fulfil their God given purpose.
- A church where every individual is victorious & confident in his/her area of gifting and service.
- A school of Ministry and discipleship.
- A body of Christ where every member is a royalty.

Confession of Faith

I affirm that the glory of the Word is revealed and made manifest in me. Daily, my heart and mind are open to receive that personal Word of power, victory, and triumph—that Word that puts me over and causes me to excel in everything I lay my hands to do.

My mind is renewed, and God's grace and peace are multiplied in my life. The Lord has caused all grace to abound towards me! I walk in the reality of my inheritance in Christ today and always. My life is upward and forward only!

In all I do, my spirit is open to the leading and guidance of the Holy Spirit. The Word builds me up; as I meditate on the Word, supernatural understanding floods my mind, causing me to live on a higher plane of life.

I am in charge; God's Word on my lips is quick, powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword. They are faith-filled, transforming circumstances and changing situations to conform to the Father's perfect will for me.

I am in God's timing for me. It doesn't matter where or the situation I find myself in; I win always! I record great and notable achievements, enjoying my days in success, progress, peace, joy, and unending prosperity. Glory to God. Hallelujah!
