Word of Exhortation

“You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you. Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord, the Lord himself, is the Rock eternal.”

~ Isaiah 26:3-4 ~

What We See:

- A church where all races, tribes, tongues & ethnicity are united in Christ Jesus, impacted to demonstrate the values & culture of the Kingdom of God, doing the works of service & moving in the supernatural love of God.
- A church of chosen people living extraordinary lives, where every member longs to bring God's love to a hurting world, being trained, equipped and released to fulfil their God given purpose.
- A church where every individual is victorious & confident in his/her area of gifting and service.
- A school of Ministry and discipleship.
- A body of Christ where every member is a royalty.

Confession of Faith

Dear Father, Thank You for the great and precious blessings You've made available to me to enjoy. You always seek to do me good, causing Your favour to surround me and Your blessings to abound in my life.

My heart is filled today with joy, and my mouth with praise as I testify of Your goodness, mercy, and love in my life. Thank You for loading me daily with all the benefits of life such that I am thoroughly furnished with all I need to live joyfully.

I thank You for Your glory and grace that You've bestowed on me to reign in life today and forever. Thank You for Your pulsating life that permeates my entire being, and with which I bless my world today.

I am conscious that I have something to give; therefore I distribute the blessings of the Kingdom to those I come in contact with today. This is an awesome privilege and I am grateful to You for it.

Thank You for the privilege of being seated with You in the realms of power and glory, far above all principality, power, might, and every domain of darkness!

I reign with You today over the circumstances of life and over every negative force of nature, declaring that Your perfect and eternal will is fulfilled in my life – in my job, family, finances, and in the lives of those around me, in Jesus' Name. Amen. Glory to God. Hallelujah!

Prayer for the Week

1. Dear Father, I thank you for your love in sending the Holy Spirit to live in me; now I'm filled with might, able to do all things and bring you glory. I'm empowered by the Holy Spirit to do great wonders and miracles, to effect positive changes in my health, family, ministry, finances, job, and in my world, in Jesus' Name.

2. Dear Father, what a blessing it is to be a conveyor and a dispenser of your divine love, power, glory, virtue, compassion and grace! I'm your extension; your outstretched arm to bring hope, succour, health, blessings, and deliverance to a dying and hurting world. Through me, your glory, power, and blessings envelop the lives of many, to your glory and praise, in Jesus' Name.

3. Dear Father, thank you for the authority and power you've given me over all the works, tricks, schemes, manipulations and deceits of the enemy. I walk in confidence and boldness, knowing that nothing shall by any means hurt me as I stand firm in the truth of your Word. I've been vested with power and authority in heaven and in earth to subdue, dominate and take charge of my world, in Jesus' Name.

4. Dear Father, I thank you for the wisdom of your Word that guides me to focus on reaching more and more people with the Gospel. Even now, many are drawn to your message of salvation and are converted and established in your Word as your children minister the Gospel around the world today, in Jesus' Name.

5. Dear Father, thank you for the power in the Name of Jesus, the Name above all names. By the power of that Name, I declare the dominion of truth, righteousness, justice and peace over all this country. I declare that the influence of the Holy Spirit will be mighty in the lives of our leaders, in Jesus' Name.

WE LIVE TO PRAISE Psalm 33:1

Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright (Psalm 33:1).

The Bible says, "Praise is comely for the upright." This is wonderful. It means that praise is consistent with, or befitting to, the custom of our Kingdom. We live to praise. No wonder the Bible says, "In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you" (1 Thessalonians 5:18).

Now, "Praise is comely" also means that praise is beautiful. The New King James Version says, "Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous! For praise from the upright is beautiful." In fact, The Passion Translation says, "...Praise him with all you have, for praise looks lovely on the lips of God's lovers."

This means that God loves to receive our praise. When we praise Him, we actually position ourselves where we ought to be as a people of praise: "But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light" (1 Peter 2:9). We're called to show forth His praise.

The meaning of praise according to the Scriptures is the offering of thanks through our lips: "By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name" (Hebrews 13:15). That means we see His goodness in the things that happen in and around us, and in our world, and for that we praise Him lavishly.

God intended that our whole life would be full of praise. You were created for His praise. When we express our praise to Him, sometimes it's with deep emotions, and at other times it's with an effulgence of joy that others may not see. But God sees it all; we do these in the light of the Spirit and in the place of His holiness. In such an atmosphere of praise, you're conscious of His love because in His presence is fullness of joy, and at His right hand are pleasures evermore (Psalm 16:11). Hallelujah!

Remain blessed in the Lord!

A LIFE OF THANKSGIVING

Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light (Colossians 1:12).

Did you know that living a life of thanksgiving is one of the ways to keep yourself in perfect health? There're those who believe that nobody can be perfectly healthy, and they're wrong; perfect health is the right of every Christian. That's what the Bible teaches.

Notice what we read in our opening verse: "Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light." He wants your life to be a life of thanksgiving always, because the Father has qualified you to be a partaker of the inheritance of the saints in the Kingdom of light.

Part of that inheritance is the divine life which comes with divine health. Divine health has been granted you in Christ Jesus and He wants you to maintain it through a life of thanksgiving. So, every day and every month of this year, live the life of thanksgiving; constantly give thanks for all things. It'll keep you in health always. Hallelujah!
