Confession of Faith

I affirm the Lord is my Shepherd; I will never lack any good things. I walk in the light of my prosperity today, for I am the seed of Abraham; I have access to wealth untold, therefore I am supply-conscious!

Lack and want are not a part of my life because I am plugged to God's unending supply system. With my spirit, I lay hold of eternal life and the blessings that salvation in Christ has consummated for me.

I take after Jesus because I am born of His Word. As I study and meditate on His Word, I become like Him more and more. I do the same things He does and get His kind of results every day.

I live by faith and not by sensory perception, for what I see with my optical eyes is temporary and subject to change. I respond to the Word with my spirit, knowing that true faith is of the spirit!

I rule, reign, and dominate from within because down in my heart is the nature of the Father! Therefore, I don't struggle to do right. I am at liberty to serve God with my whole heart and do only those things that are pleasing to Him. Glory to God. Hallelujah!

Prayer for the Week

1. Dear Father, I thank you for the gift of the Holy Spirit; I recognize His presence in my life and yield fully to His leading. As I fellowship with Him, my spirit is built strong, and I'm empowered to live victoriously, every day, in Jesus' Name.
2. Dear Father, I walk in the liberty of your grace, knowing that sin has no dominion over me. Through the sacrifice of Jesus, I have been made righteous, justified, and sanctified. I live in the consciousness of this victory, free from guilt, walking in the fullness of the blessings of salvation, in Jesus' Name.
3. Dear Father, I lift up my hands in faith to you who always leads me in perpetual victory parade in Christ. My raised hands are as the evening sacrifice. I'm victorious and triumphant over the adversary; no opposition can prevail against me, and every challenge crumbles before me, in Jesus' Name.
4. Dear Father, thank you for the privilege to pray and side with you to enforce your will in the earth and in the lives of men. Through my heartfelt, continued prayer, I make tremendous power available for peace, tranquillity, advancement, abundance, and prosperity for the nations of the world, that they may experience your goodness, in Jesus' Name.
5. Dear Father, I proclaim the Name of Jesus over UK, I proclaim the Name of Jesus over every city. I pronounce God's blessings over the leaders, they will no longer be controlled by evil forces, they will no longer be controlled by wickedness but the influence of the Spirit of grace will be mighty in their lives, in Jesus' Name.

OUR YEAR OF GRACE & GLORY!

FOCUS ON YOUR MISSION JOHN 10:10

...I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly (John 10:10).

One of the beautiful things about discovering your divine purpose in life is that it keeps you focused. Your purpose defines your life, giving you a focus and a direction. A synonym for purpose is "intent" or "design." Intent or design is never general; it must be clear, definite and specific for it to be realistic and effective.

Our Lord Jesus had a clear purpose for coming into the world, and He expressed it unequivocally. He said, "I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it to the full" (John 10:10). The Word says in 1 John 3:8: "...For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." Then in Luke 19:10, Jesus declared, "...The son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." His purpose was very clear: He came to do the will of His Father.

He said, "...My nourishment comes from doing the will of God who sent me, and from finishing his work" (John 4:34 TLB). We see from this statement of Jesus, a very powerful principle of life revealed: the pursuit and fulfilment of your divine purpose is the true sustenance of life; it's the fuel that keeps your engine running while you're on the face of this earth. Even in the natural sense, few things stimulate, keep alive, or stir courage as much as going after a goal and accomplishing it.

We also see purpose expressed in Paul's narrative of his encounter with Jesus on the road to Damascus (Acts 26:13-16). He appeared to Paul to make him a minister and a witness (Acts 26:16). He further reveals to Paul that he was "to open the eyes of the Gentiles and turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in Christ Jesus" (Acts 26:18).

This was Paul's reason for being; this was his life's mission, and he said in verse 19, "...J was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision." Then in 1 Corinthians 9:26, he said, "I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air." In other words, I'm focused on my mission; I'm definitive about carrying out God's plan for my life. That's how it ought to be. Be focused on your assignment, on your God-given purpose. Glory to God!!

Remain blessed in the Lord!

FOLLOW HIS PLANS

There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death (Proverbs 16:25).

In 1 Samuel 15, we read about Saul and how God led him to victory over the Amalekites. God gave him specific instructions to completely destroy the Amalekites, including their livestock. But Saul and the people destroyed the things that they didn't want and then kept some choice spoils for themselves. They even kept the king alive.

Displeased with Saul, God said, "It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments..." (1 Samuel 15:11). How regrettable! Saul was the king, and the people were supposed to follow him, while he was expected to follow the Lord. But he disobeyed God's direct instructions repeatedly.

When Samuel the prophet confronted him about his error, he blamed it on the people. He said, "...For the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed" (1 Samuel 15:15). Bad enough that he didn't follow the clear instructions God gave him, he also refused to take responsibility for his actions, blaming the people instead. Of course, Saul lost out on God's plan following his wilful disobedience. Subsequently, the Bible says, "The Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit troubled him" (1 Samuel 16:14). Always follow God's instructions; follow His Word, His plans, and His guidance.

Some people pursue ambitions that have no connection with the purpose of God for their lives. They're not yielded to the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Don't live like that. Follow what the Spirit tells you to do. He's the One who unveils mysteries and divine secrets to you and helps you to discover yourself in God's dream.

Whatever idea or plan you have, be sure it's consistent with His Word—His perfect will. Yield to the Lordship and guidance of His Word. His Word is light, and if you follow Him in the Word, you'll not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life! You'll be filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding.
