Confession of Faith

I affirm that the Word of God is the truth by which I live today and every day. The Word of God has granted me speed and understanding; my faith is strengthened to lay hold of all that the Father has given unto me in Christ Jesus.

I live triumphantly, making my way prosperous, as I live in, and by the Word. Daily, my eyes are set on God and on His Word alone. I am perfected in Christ through the enlightenment and understanding granted me by the Spirit to know and live by the greater truths of God's Word.

I am confident that I will consistently make progress and walk in victory everyday. The Word of God has imparted divine life into my spirit, and I am experiencing increased glory as I give vent to the Word today! Hallelujah!

The Spirit of God has granted me favour, peace, and ensured fruitfulness, prosperity, and productivity in every area of my life! Everything in my world conforms with God's will and destiny for me.

I am chosen and anointed by the Holy Spirit to preach the Gospel with power and impact my world with His divine presence. I have the supernatural wisdom and ability to always do things right the first time. Glory to God. Hallelujah!

Prayer for the Week

1. Dear Father, thank you for your Word that transforms and aligns me with your perfect will. As I meditate on your truth, I stand perfect and complete in all that you have planned for my life, guided by your Spirit into fullness and wholeness, in Jesus' Name.
2. I thank you, blessed Father, for granting me insight into the mysteries and secrets of the Kingdom. I'm filled with the knowledge of your will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. I know the hope of your calling and the riches of the glory of your inheritance for me in Christ, in Jesus' Name.
3. Dear Father, I'm confident to use the Name of Jesus, and live every day in, and by the power of His Name. I speak in the Name of Jesus, knowing that my words carry the same power and authority as though Jesus Himself were the One speaking. I make demands right now, and declare that all things are brought into subjection unto me. I'm victorious, triumphant, and successful, in Jesus' Name.
4. Dear Father, I pray against every influence of darkness that seeks to capture the hearts of children and young people, including peer pressure, negative media and worldly ideologies. I declare that they're walking in the light and rejecting every unfruitful work of evil as they walk in righteousness and fulfil their purpose in Christ, in Jesus' Name.
5. Powerful Father, thank you your power at work in and through us. I ask that you put thoughts in the hearts and minds of men and women in authority in any way to make wise, righteous and Holy Spirit inspired decisions that will cause the truth, peace and prosperity today be established in the UK and nations of the world, in Jesus' Name.

THE HOLY SPIRIT: GOD AT WORK IN YOU.
John 14:10

Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak to you, I speak not from myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works (John 14:10).

The Holy Spirit is the active agent of the Godhead; He's the power of God; He carries out the acts of God. Man was created and formed by the Holy Spirit; everything God does outside of His throne is done by the Holy Spirit. Nothing works without the Holy Spirit; there's no life without Him. The Lord Jesus, in the days of His earthly ministry, did nothing without the Holy Spirit. In our opening verse, He identifies the Holy Spirit as the Father that dwells in Him and does the work. That's a fact to recognize in your life as a Christian.

The Holy Spirit in your life is your key to extraordinary and absolute success. None of those who walked with Him as revealed in the Scriptures were ever defeated; none was a failure. Everyone who received Him gained the mastery and became the champion. Many in the Church today need to know for sure who the Holy Spirit is and His ministry in their lives. He is Himself, God.

If you were to carry out any task for the Lord in your local Church, for example, until and unless you execute it by the power of the Spirit, there'll be no impact. You can further understand Paul's submission in Colossians 1:29 in describing his total dependence on the power of the Spirit for effective ministry work. He said, "Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily." It should and must be the same for every one of us.

The Bible says, "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure" (Philippians 2:13); that's referring to the Holy Spirit. You can't do God's work or even live the Christian life without the Holy Spirit. Zechariah 4:6 says, "...Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts." It's for the same reason that He wants us perpetually filled with the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 5:18). The Holy Spirit is God at work in you, building you, and building others through you.

Remain blessed in the Lord!

THE HOLY SPIRIT —THE FATHER'S BLESSING

And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him (Acts 5:32).

Luke 11:13 is one of the scriptures many misapply and misunderstand about receiving the Holy Spirit. There, Jesus said, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?" But then, He wasn't talking to Christians, but to those under the Old Covenant.

Anyone could have received the Holy Spirit by asking; but sadly, most never did because they didn't ask. Jesus said ask and it shall be given unto you (Luke 11:9). But after the New Testament was effected, from the resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Word never told anyone to ask for the Holy Spirit. What we're told is how the apostles ministered the Holy Spirit to people; they "...prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost" (Acts 8:15); and some received without prayer (Acts 10:44-46).

It's actually pointless to ask God for the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is one of the cardinal gifts of God—to all men. By simply obeying His call to believe the Gospel, anyone can receive Him. He said in Acts 2:17, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh...." See also, Acts 5:32, Hebrews 5:9, Romans 2:8.

Notice He didn't say, "I will pour out of my Spirit upon all Christians, but upon all flesh." This is the Father's blessing. It has come now. Without the Holy Spirit, you can't live the Christian life. God desires that you walk in the fullness of the Spirit and live righteously and victoriously in this present world.

If you haven't received the Holy Spirit since you've been born again, Galatians 3:14 says, "...that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith." Simply say, "In the Name of Jesus Christ, I open my heart now, and I receive the Holy Spirit." Then by faith, receive as simply as you received Christ. While thanking Him, you may even now be filled with the Spirit, speaking with tongues or prophesying. Glory to God!
