Confession of Faith

I affirm that my body is the temple of the living God. I am continually strengthened with might in my inner man as the anointing of God's Spirit runs through every fibre of my being, making me sickness and disease-free.

I am built up, thriving on my most holy faith, making progress by the supernatural, and rising like an edifice, ever higher and higher, as I pray in the Holy Ghost! I am never disadvantaged! I am born with the ability to reign and rule over the elements of this world.

God has put in me the yeast to rise above every challenge, therefore, it's impossible to go down irrespective of what's happening in the nations of the world. I know who I am, the child of the Monarch of the universe.

Christ in me, the manifestation of glory. The mysteries of life are unveiled to my spirit. Never will I walk in darkness; for the true light that lightens every man's world shines in my heart. I refuse to be described as a victim because I am mightily helped by the Spirit of God.

Everywhere I go, the Lord has the right people at the right place and at the right time to favour my course. I refuse to be a part of the suffering masses; for I've been transferred from the kingdom of this world into the Kingdom of God's dear Son. Glory to God. Hallelujah!

Prayer for the Week

1. Precious Holy Spirit, I acknowledge you as my helper, and the one I need to be an absolute success in life. Thank you for your ability, strength and wisdom mightily at work in me. Health, victory, strength, prosperity and success are mine now and always, as you work in me, both to will, and to do of your good pleasure, in Jesus' Name.

2. Dear Father, I thank you for the good things that are in me. I acknowledge and walk in the fullness of these blessings, producing results in my life and being a blessing to others. Through the Word and the Spirit, I gain accurate knowledge of my inheritance in Christ and live in the reality of it, in Jesus' Name.

3. Dear Father, thank you for revealing to me the truth that I am filled with the fullness of Christ. I am replete with you—spirit, soul and body, being inseparably one with you. Sickness, disease, failure and defeat have no place in my life, because I am complete in Christ. I walk in this fullness every day, in Jesus' Name.

4. Dear Father, I rejoice in the abundant mercy I've obtained in Christ and His superabundant grace which has made me sufficient in all things. Even now, I obtain mercy for the salvation of sinners around the world today—the hardest of hearts, the wayward, the wicked—that they may turn from their ways and embrace the light of the glorious Gospel, in Jesus' Name.

5. I pray for every leader in UK that they would rule justly and with godly wisdom. I pray for strength and blessing for them. In the Name of Jesus, I bind Satan from operating over the political scene of this country. I command Satan to take his hands off my government, economy and social scene right now, in Jesus' Name.

SPEAKING MYSTERIES IN THE SPIRIT 1 Corinthians 2:7

But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory (1 Corinthians 2:7).

Life is full of mysteries, unanswered questions, events and activities beyond human understanding. As Christians, our way of dealing with these mysteries is by speaking mysteries. Rather than wonder about negative circumstances, we cancel them by speaking spiritual mysteries.

The Bible says, “For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries” (1 Corinthians 14:2). When we pray in tongues, we're uttering divine mysteries inspired by the Holy Spirit.

At such times, your spirit reaches into the realm of the spirit, just as the Bible says, “Deep calleth unto deep...” (Psalm 42:7). Then 1 Corinthians 2:10-11 says, “...for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.”

These mysteries of the Spirit that are unknown to men are unveiled to us by the Holy Spirit: “Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth...” (1 Corinthians 2:12-13).

Notice that it says, “...Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth...” Cultivate the habit of speaking in tongues often. As you do, you speak things into your future. You settle matters and take care of things in the realm of the spirit so that when the time of crisis comes, you just laugh your way through.

This is why God wants us to pray all the time in the spirit: “Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints” (Ephesians 6:18).

Remain blessed in the Lord!

REVELATORY UNDERSTANDING BY THE SPIRIT

For I always pray to] the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, that He may grant you a spirit of wisdom and revelation [of insight into mysteries and secrets] in the [deep and intimate] knowledge of Him (Ephesians 1:17 AMPC).

In Matthew 16:13-20, Jesus asked His disciples a pressing pair of questions bordering on His identity. First, He asked them, “Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?” After getting their responses, He then asked the second question: “...But whom say ye that I am?” (Matthew 16:15). The Bible says, “...Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God” (Matthew 16:16). Peter's confession of Jesus as the Christ was a revelation from God, but Peter didn't know it; He thought it was his reasoning.

Jesus had to tell him: “...Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven” (Matthew 16:17). Hallelujah! Just like Peter, many of God's people have received revelations from God. Think about it: How did you know Jesus is the Christ? It's the Holy Spirit that revealed it to your spirit. The Bible says, “...no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost” (1 Corinthians 12:3).

You believe the Virgin Birth of Jesus Christ; you read about it in the Scriptures and believed. That was the Holy Spirit granting you insight into that mystery. Likewise, the resurrection of Jesus Christ; you weren't there when it happened, but you believe.

Also, you believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and that He died for your sins and God raised Him from the dead, and He's alive today; that's a revelation from God. Your brain can't figure out such truths. Science can never give them to you. You have them in your spirit because God made them known to your spirit.

It's part of the ministry of the Spirit in us: the unveiling of truth. So, trust Him with your life. Make knowing Him more and living His Word your greatest passion. Through that fellowship, He'll keep unveiling Himself and the greater mysteries of the Kingdom to you.
