Word of Exhortation

“Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus”

~ Philippians 4:6-7 ~

What We See:

- A church where all races, tribes, tongues & ethnicity are untied in Christ Jesus, impacted to demonstrate the values & culture of the Kingdom of God, doing the works of service & moving in the supernatural love of God.
- A church of chosen people living extraordinary lives, where every member longs to bring God's love to a hurting world, being trained, equipped and released to fulfil their God given purpose.
- A church where every individual is victorious & confident in his/her area of gifting and service.
- A school of Ministry and discipleship.
- A body of Christ where every member is a royalty.

Confession of Faith

The world belongs to me! I am unlimited; all things are mine in Christ. I express the life and character of the Spirit to my world.

I don't lack or want for anything: ideas, inspiration, wealth, prosperity, and all the goodness of God are in my spirit, and I bring them forth from the fullness in my spirit.

I am strengthened, fortified, and energized for victory, success, and excellence through the power of God's Word, and the might of the Spirit.

I am ordained unto a life of fruitfulness and productivity, flourishing in the courts of the Lord, bringing Him honour, and bearing abundant fruits unto Him in righteousness.

I'm strong and very courageous, standing firm in faith, reaching out, and apprehending the glories that lie ahead.

My path is like the first gleam of dawn, which shines ever brighter until the full light of day. I am walking in righteousness and producing works and fruits of righteousness. Blessed be God. Hallelujah!

Prayer for the Week

1. Dear Father, thank you for bringing me into an actual, real, tangible and living relationship with you. I am born of you, filled with your Spirit, and I walk daily in the reality of my oneness with you, conscious of my divine nature, and manifesting your love, wisdom and power to my world. Thank you for the privilege of knowing and living in this truth, in Jesus' Name.
2. Dear Father, thank you for the divine competence and ability you have empowered me with. My ability is not of myself but from you; I'm therefore divinely empowered to succeed in all things. As I meditate on and confess your Word, I walk in the reality of my divine nature and fulfil all that you have called me to accomplish, in Jesus' Name.
3. Everywhere I am, and in all that I do, my light shines with so much intensity for the world to see. I openly manifest the glory of God in my world, dispelling, ousting, and expelling darkness and all of the works thereof, in Jesus' Name.
4. Heavenly Father, thank you for qualifying me to be an ambassador of Christ, showing men and women the way to the Kingdom. I recognize that I'm the hope and light of the world; I function in this ministry of reconciliation with everything that I am and with all that I have, ushering many in my world into the Kingdom, in Jesus' Name.
5. Dear Father, I pray for leaders in my country, that they'd use their positions and authority to favour your righteous cause, that the Gospel may spread speedily and unhindered. I pray your blessings of peace and prosperity upon the UK, in Jesus' Name.

HE'S REALLY NOT WORKING TODAY Hebrews 4:10

For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his (Hebrews 4:10).

Our opening verse reveals something striking that many in the Church today need to understand. God isn't in heaven, troubled about how to fix things in the world and help his children that are in one predicament or the other. Rather, He's in heaven resting. He's done everything He ever needed to do for you to have and enjoy life to the full, and now He's taking a chill; resting.

You might say, "But when I have a situation, and I pray to God, who miraculously intervenes, doesn't that mean He's done something?" No, He didn't do anything. You only activated your faith to receive what He's already done. You might query further, "But the Apostle Paul said, 'Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us' (Ephesians 3:20). Doesn't it show that God still does things today?" Notice the latter part: He does whatever you require Him to do for you, according to His power that's at work in you, not according to the power He wields in, or from heaven. That's why when such miracles happen, He gives you the credit. He told us to heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils (Matthew 10:8). He didn't say, "Pray to me to do them."

There're certain things that are permissible at the lower levels of spiritual understanding. For example, we can say in a crusade meeting, "God is going to heal you today," and diverse healing miracles will take place. But that's a lesser truth. In Genesis 1:16, we read about greater light and the lesser light. Light stands for truth. Lesser and generic truths are for the babies in Christ; so you tell them, "God is going to heal you."

But the more you delve into the Word of God, the more you realise that God is really not "doing" anything for anybody today in the sense that many understand it. He's already done and fulfilled everything in Christ Jesus! He's not making any effort to heal you or give you anything. 2 Peter 1:3 says, "According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness...." He's already done it! What you need now is to act on the Word and walk in your inheritance. Be all He's made you, and enjoy all that He's made available to you in Christ.

Remain blessed in the Lord!

HE'S WORKING WITH US

And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen (Mark 16:20).

There have been those who were once actively involved in the Gospel, putting in everything they've got, but at some point, they started feeling discouraged, for one reason or the other. Some gave up altogether. It reminds of a similar case with Jesus' disciples. They left everything, including their businesses and careers, to follow Jesus. They were having the time of their lives, going everywhere with the Master, preaching the Gospel. Then Jesus was crucified and buried! Though He resurrected, they didn't see Him every day as they used to.

With time, their zeal began to dissipate. They thought it was all over. Some went back to their businesses, including Peter, the great Apostle. The Bible says, "Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee..." (John 21:3). But guess what? Jesus showed up on the shore one day, and after He had performed another miraculous sign, He said, "... Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep" (John 21:16). In other words, He was saying to Peter, "Leave these other things; go and do what I sent you to do." But first, they were to receive the Holy Spirit, who would enable them.

Afterward, they became more vibrant, preaching the Gospel, because it became clear to them that the Master was more with them now through the Holy Spirit than ever before: He was in them. Our theme verse says, "And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen."

It's the same with us today; we're not working alone. So, never be discouraged; remain passionate in preaching the Gospel, knowing that the Lord Himself is working with, in, and through you. Glory to His Name forever.
