Confession of Faith

I affirm that the Lord is the strength of my life; my joy, and my satisfaction! He has made my life so beautiful; He has crowned me with His glory and filled me with His wisdom, righteousness, mercies, and grace. In Him, I am complete. Hallelujah! The glory of God is on the inside of me and revealed in everything that I do. I am prosperous and successful in all things because I am an heir of God and a joint heir with Christ.

Daily, I am guided by God's wisdom, and His infallible truths are my delight and meditation! Thus, I have all that I require for a joyous, successful, and victorious life. Hallelujah! I have an excellent spirit, and I produce excellent results in all I do. The Holy Spirit is at work in me, both to will and to deliver excellence, in accordance with His perfect will. I am a success because I function with the wisdom of Christ and His superabundant grace.

I am the apple of God's eye; no evil will befall me, neither shall any plague come near my dwelling. I am protected in my going out and in my coming in because I dwell in the secret place of the Most High. Christ is my habitation; as the mountains surround Jerusalem, so am I surrounded by the Lord. I will never stumble or fall because He that watches over me does not sleep nor slumber. I will never be a victim, for the Lord has dispatched His angels to watch over me. Everywhere I go, good is channeled towards me and I will always eat of the good of the land. Glory to God. Hallelujah!

Prayer for the Week

1. I thank you, righteous Father, for the blessing of having the Holy Spirit live in me; He's my all-time helper, teacher, and guide, who continually reveals Christ Jesus to me and through me. I have insight into the mysteries and secrets of the Kingdom, and live triumphantly for your glory, in Jesus Name.

2. I'm divinely favoured and positioned for the glorious life! Grace has put me ahead, and I can never be disadvantaged! I increase in beauty, honour and influence. I live and walk with the consciousness of one who's blessed of the Lord; and through me, blessings are dispersed to those in my world, in Jesus Name.

3. I've overcome the world and its systems; its troubles, predicaments, afflictions and temptations, because greater is He that's in me, than he that's in the world. I exercise my authority in Christ over all the power and schemes of the enemy, and I'm eternally triumphant, in Jesus Name.

4. By the power of the Holy Spirit, I daily establish the righteousness of God and the reign of His Kingdom in the earth, for I receive the grace to be an effective witness as I go about winning souls and impacting others with the Gospel, in Jesus Name.

5. Precious Father, I thank you for the authority in the Name of Jesus with which we prevail over Satan and his cohorts. By that authority, I cut off principalities and powers, rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places, from every sector, establishment and aspect of government in UK, in Jesus Name.

FIGHTING THE SPIRIT OF COMPROMISE Daniel 6:1-16

Anything that you are doing that is giving you pain or problem often results in blessings. It is often difficult and challenging because there is something good in it. Micah 7:8 says; “Do not rejoice over me, my enemy; When I fall, I will arise; When I sit in darkness, The Lord will be a light to me.” If you fall, you will rise again in Jesus Name. A man or a woman that falls is not a failure, until he or she decides not to rise again.

When Jacob was wrestling with the angel in Genesis 32:36, the angel said; “Let Me go, for the day breaks.” The bible tells us that Jacob responded saying; “I will not let You go unless You bless me!” Then the angel broke the socket of his hip. Jacob did not let him go, but he clutched onto him. The majority of us allow the problems and challenges that we face and go through paralyze everything in our lives.

In Mark 10, the bible tells us that the blind Bartimaeus cried out to Jesus for his deliverance. In verse 46-52 it says; “Jesus and his disciples went to Jericho. And as they were leaving, they were followed by a large crowd. A blind beggar by the name of Bartimaeus son of Timaeus was sitting beside the road. When he heard that it was Jesus from Nazareth, he shouted, ‘Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!’ Many people told the man to stop, but he shouted even louder, ‘Son of David, have pity on me!’ Jesus stopped and said, ‘Call him over!’ They called out to the blind man and said, ‘Don’t be afraid! Come on! He is calling for you.’ The man threw off his coat as he jumped up and ran to Jesus.” The same people that quieted him, were the same people that called him out. People that have dishonored you, will be the same people that will honor you in the name of Jesus Christ. The same people that have disrespected you, will be the same people that will bow down to you in the name of Jesus Christ.

.Remain blessed in the Lord!

TRUST THE HOLY SPIRIT

And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever (John 14:16).

The Holy Spirit is God's gift to us—the greatest blessing in our lives as Christians. He's God at work in us. As Christians, we need Him to live victoriously in Christ. That's why the Lord Jesus said, “...I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter...” (John 14:16). The Holy Spirit came to help you live the Christian life, because no ordinary person can live the Christian life. It also takes the Holy Spirit to give you the understanding of God's Word, awaken you to the fatherhood of God, and, amongst other things, help you accept the truth that Jesus Christ is the Son of God; God in flesh.

When Jesus asked His disciples, “Whom do men say that I the son of man am?” (Matthew 16:13), Peter, by the revelation of the Holy Spirit, spoke correctly. He said, “Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.” The Master's response to Peter was, “...Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven” (Matthew 16:17).

Peter wasn't guessing; the knowledge of who Jesus is was imparted to him by the Holy Spirit. Jesus said in John 16:13, “Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth....” Think of the Holy Spirit as the revealer or unveiler of the secrets, mysteries and realities of the Kingdom of God to our spirits. He makes heavenly materiality tangible to our spirits.

Even in preaching and ministering the Gospel to others, He's the One who helps to bring the understanding of the message to those to whom we minister. But for Him, they'd never understand the message of the Gospel that we preach. We talk on the outside, but He confirms the words and grants them understanding on the inside. Perhaps you're a minister of the Gospel, don't try to build the Church by your own strength; depend on the Holy Spirit. Take advantage of His glorious ministry in your life and you'll never be stressed. He makes the job easy, and sees to it that you're triumphant every day. Trust Him with your life, and He'll manifest Himself in and through you.
