Word of Exhortation

“And He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness” Therefore most gladly I will boast in my infirmities that the power of Christ may rest upon me.”

~ 2nd Corinthians 12:9 ~

What We See:

- A church where all race, tribe, tongues & ethnicity are untied in Christ Jesus, impacted to demonstrate the values & culture of the Kingdom of God, doing the works of service & moving in the supernatural love of God.
- A church of chosen people living extraordinary lives, where every member longs to bring God's love to a hurting world, being trained, equipped and released to fulfil their God given purpose.
- A church where every individual is victorious & confident in his/her area of gifting and service.
- A school of Ministry and discipleship.
- A body of Christ where every member is a royalty.

Confession of Faith

I affirm that I have a brand new life in Christ. Everything about my life is infused with divinity and speaks of God's glory. Eternal life, love, health, peace, joy, righteousness, prosperity are all mine! My life is for the glory of God! All things are fashioned to work together for my good because I love the Lord, and I've been called according to His purpose. Everything I require for life and godliness has been delivered unto me, and I am enjoying life to the full. I have received abundance of grace, therefore, my capacity, vision, dreams, and ideas have expanded. I am conscious of the grace of God that is at work in me mightily.

I am expanding on every side; growing stronger by the day like a cedar in Lebanon, and flourishing like the palm tree! I am making progress by the Spirit, and of my increase, progress, and prosperity, there shall be no end! My entire being is inundated with the life of God and I am powered by the Holy Ghost to do bigger things. I am set on the course on which I must follow and God's Spirit is leading me in the path of success, victory, and prosperity. Hallelujah!

I am made, and I live each day to fulfil God's dream for my life. I do not struggle but enjoy unstoppable growth and progress as I receive guidance and light from the Lord. I am not of this world; I seated with Christ in heavenly places, far above all the hardships, troubles, perils, and the corrupting influences in the world. I dominate and triumph over circumstances today and always. Glory to God. Hallelujah!

OUR VISION

“Reconciling nations to God through the Gospel of Jesus; Equipping them with the Word and the Spirit of God, in revelation and power; demonstrating the beauty of God in love.”

Watchword 2021

Lord, You will establish peace for us, for You have also done all our works in us.

Isaiah 26:12

(Thanksgiving Service)*

Prayer for the Week

1. Heavenly Father, I thank you for the blessing, privilege and opportunity of prayer; a channel for rich fellowship with you. I trust you with my life, and I'm confident that my future is secure; I'll fulfil your destiny for me gloriously, as I remain yielded to your Spirit, guided by your wisdom, in Jesus Name.

2. I'm the seed of Abraham, the result of the spoken Word; I walk in my inheritance in Christ, being an heir of God and a joint-heir with Christ. I live in victory and dominion today and always, making progress from glory to glory, in Jesus Name.

3. Dear Father, what a blessing it is to know that I've been divinely acquitted of all charges. I walk in the light of my justification, and reign over sin, Satan and circumstances. My life is an expression of your righteousness. I'm victorious all the way, serving you joyously without fear or condemnation, in Jesus Name.

4. Thank you Father, for in Christ Jesus life and immortality have been unveiled. I dwell in the realm of life, and in that realm, there's no lack or poverty, no sickness, disease or infirmity; I reign gloriously over circumstances by the power of the Holy Spirit, in Jesus Name.

5. Thank you, blessed Father, for all the nations are yours, UK is yours. I proclaim the Name of Jesus over every city, every nation, and every level of government. The power of evil is broken over the cities, towns and neighbourhood in this nation, and the Gospel grows mightily, prevailing gloriously, especially in the hearts and minds of our leaders, in Jesus Name.

INFLUENCE 2 Samuel 13:1-14

David had many wives. One of the problems affecting polygamy is having many wives. Amnon and Absalom were David's son but not of the same mother. Absalom had a younger sister of the same mother called Tamar. Amnon fell in love with Tamar and the love was so deep that Amnon grew thinner every day and had sleepless nights. Amnon had a friend called Jonadab (the son of David's brother). Amnon confided in Jonadab that he loved his sister Tamar. Jonadab being a crafty person advised him to pretend to be ill and make a request to the king that Tamar should prepare a meal for him. David approved it, and Tamar baked some cakes for him. Amnon took advantage of the situation. He forced her and lay with her and Absalom killed him.

The word of exhortation here is who is the person influencing you? And who are you influencing? God wants you to understand that salvation is apart and you may go through storms in life. These storms may not be from the devil but caused by you. When a man does not realize what he is doing, he may just try to manage it. God has planted conscience in everybody's heart. Your conscience can find you guilty but God wants you to correct and adjust it. Jonadab was supposed to advise Amnon that what he intended to do to his sister is an abomination. That shows us the extent to which people uphold abomination in America and other parts of the world.

A notable example is the judgment of the Supreme Court that upholds the practice of same sex marriage in America. What is highly exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. It is terrestrial and terrestrial can never overcome celestial (the word of God). The word of man could fail because it is not of God. A decree can be revoked. Anything God has not planted in your life will be uprooted in Jesus Name. Amen. ... to be continued.

Remain blessed in the Lord!

GLORYING IN TRIBULATION

Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned... (2 Corinthians 11:23-25).

The Apostle Paul experienced great deal of tribulations during his ministry. He was severely persecuted. Read our opening scripture again; He faced death at different times, and at a point, he was abandoned by all his friends while in prison (2 Timothy 1:15). Nonetheless, in spite of all that he suffered for the sake of the Gospel, he penned such inspiring words in Romans 5:3, part of which says, "...we glory in tribulations..." Blessed thought! Meaning that there can be hard times, but they're for our glory. Hallelujah! It's a reiteration of what James said in James 1:2, "My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations."

No matter the trouble, no matter the tribulation that you face, rejoice. Whatever challenge you may be facing today is tailor-made for you; it's for your promotion and glory. Therefore, let not your heart be troubled. Things may seem tough and difficult today. Outwardly, it may look as though your confessions of the Word and commitment to the Gospel aren't yielding any result; remain unflustered! Keep your focus on Christ and His eternal Word.

I love the inspiring way Paul puts it in 2 Corinthians 4:16. He said, "For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day." We're indestructible. He continued in verses 17 and 18: "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory. While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Hold on to the Word. Like Abraham, against hope, believe in hope (Romans 4:18), knowing that no matter what happens, you'll win. Romans 12:12 tells us to rejoice in hope and be patient in tribulation. The night may be dark and long, but guaranteed: joy comes in the morning. Glory to God!
