Confession of Faith

I declare that my mind is anointed to think excellent thoughts. I am always inspired by the Word, to think on things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, and of good report. The Word of God is building my faith strong and exposing me to the realities of the Kingdom. I choose to walk by faith and not by sensory perceptions!

With my spirit, I take a hold of the realities of the Kingdom, walking in divine health, prosperity, favour, and victory. My life only goes in the upward and forward direction because the Father has chosen and ordained me to be productive in all aspects of my life! My mind is anointed for growth and supernatural accomplishment!

The eyes of my spirit are enlightened to see the right opportunities and I am well positioned to eat of the good of the land. I know what to do; I know when to do what to do; and I know how to do what to do, through the guidance and light that I have received from the Holy Spirit and the Word. I am making progress and winning every day, by the power of the spirit which is at work in me mightily.

Glory to God. Hallelujah!

Prayer for the Week

1. Dear Father, thank for you've made me a light in a dark world, and my light shines everywhere. By the Holy Spirit, I impact my world with your wisdom and love today. I walk in your glory and perfection, manifesting your righteousness and exercising the dominion of the Spirit, in Jesus Name.
2. Dear Father, I consciously think the right thoughts and meditate only on things that are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, of a good report, virtuous and praiseworthy. Therefore, I fulfil all your plans for me, by your Word, I make my way prosperous, and walk in absolute victory and abundance of your grace, in Jesus Name.
3. My faith is the victory that overcomes the world and its systems. The Word of God is my life, and the glory and blessings therein are evident in my life in the might Name of Jesus.
4. Blessed Father, how great and glorious you are! You're the only true and wise God, who reigns and rules in the affairs of men. To you, O Lord, be all glory, honour, majesty, dominion and praise! Thank you for making my life beautiful and filling me with your glory, righteousness and peace, in Jesus' Name .
5. Blessed Father, you are the King of the earth and all the nations are yours. I proclaim the Name of Jesus over every city and town and over every aspect of the government in UK. The power of fear, deception and darkness is broken over the cities and the nations of the world, and the light of God's Word Gospel grows mightily and prevail mightily in the lives of our leaders, in the Name of Jesus.

BEHOLD THE WONDERS OF GOD Luke 19:1-9

Jesus is the Prince of peace. If we want peace, Jesus is the answer. The Bible says in Hebrew 12:2 “looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.”

Jesus is the one that does not allow the enemies to triumph over us. He is the one that puts your enemies to shame. He is the one that keeps you alive. He is the one that says “I am that I am”. He is the one that surrounds you with His wall of fire. He is the one that makes things happen in your life.

He told Moses “I am that I am; go forward for I am with you”. He makes you a terror in the camp of your enemies. He takes away the garment of shame. He takes away the garment of disgrace. He takes away the garment of infirmity. He takes away the garment of sorrow and replaces it with the garment of glory.

Today, I declare that every garment that does not make you happy will turn around to be a source of joy and celebration for you in Jesus name and you shall indeed see the WONDERS OF GOD in the land of the living in Jesus name.

Remain blessed in the Lord!

SET YOUR MIND ON SPIRITUAL THINGS

Set your AFFECTION on things above, not on things on the earth (Colossians 3:2).

Even though “affection” is quite a good and strong rendering in the verse above, the Greek word, “phroneo” is a little more practical. It means to set your mind or your thinking; an activity of the mind; how your mind works. It originates from two words; one meaning, “To reign in,” like you say, “I’ve got to reign this fellow in”; that is, to bring him under control. The second word means, “To block in or fence in.”

Thus, the admonition to set your affection on things above means to have control on your mind and consciously set your thinking on spiritual things. Remember that the things you think about are the things that will control your actions.

For example, you may have been wrestling with certain habits; habits that affect the way you serve and live for the Lord; habits that reduce your effectiveness and efficiency. You might have prayed about it, yet, nothing seemed to have changed. It's not so much about prayer as it's about the use of your mind! Your mind is a very powerful machine; you can twist or control it any way you choose. So, what you must do is to first, consciously refuse to think on those things you know aren't wholesome, and deliberately focus your mind on the Word.

Practise exercising your mind through conscious thought. If, for whatever reason, an unwholesome thought comes to you, say, “No,” and then, switch your mind to something excellent; to the Word. Don't be surprised if such thoughts creep in again; resist it and repeat the process. James 4:7 says “...Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.” God knows what's in the devil, and He tells us if we resist him, he'll flee; that's got to be the necessary result!
