What We See:

- A church where all race, tribe, tongues & ethnicity are untied in Christ Jesus, impacted to demonstrate the values & culture of the Kingdom of God, doing the works of service & moving in the supernatural love of God.
- A church of chosen people living extraordinary lives, where every member longs to bring God's love to a hurting world, being trained, equipped and released to fulfil their God given purpose.
- A church where every individual is victorious & confident in his/her area of gifting and service.
- A school of Ministry and discipleship.
- A body of Christ where every member is a royalty.

Confession of Faith

I affirm that I am exalted in every area of my life. The Spirit of God has granted me spiritual insight and sets me on the right course in life.

The keys of the kingdom have been given unto me; therefore, I walk in righteousness and dominion, having insight into mysteries and secrets of the Kingdom.

I live above the distracting influences of this earthly realm because I live in, and by the Word. Nothing is impossible with me because my life is the story and testimony of God's grace.

There's nothing that I do that is void of the anointing. The anointing of God is on everything that I do. This anointing causes me to expand, spread, flourish, and advance in life.

God has granted me the speed of the Spirit and I experience luxuriant growth and persistent productivity in every area of my life. Whatever I set my heart to do, the blessing of God is on it

Glory to God. Hallelujah!

OUR VISION

"Reconciling nations to God through the Gospel of Jesus; Equipping them with the Word and the Spirit of God, in revelation and power; demonstrating the beauty of God in love."

Watchword 2021

Lord, You will establish peace for us, for You have also done all our works in us.

Isaiah 26:12

Sun 26th Sept. 2021

Word of Exhortation

"Oh, taste and see that the Lord is good; Blessed is the man who trusts in Him!"

~ Psalms 34:8 ~

"You are my hiding place and my shield; I hope in Your word."

~ Psalms 119:114 ~

Prayer for the Week

1. Dear heavenly Father, I thank you for the privilege of fellowship with you in prayer by the Holy Spirit. Your Spirit fills me through and through, and I'm built up as a spiritual edifice, over and above the corrupting influences of this world, in Jesus Name.
2. Dear heavenly Father, thank you for granting me the grace, wisdom, and strength to raise and build others, helping them discover their greatness, and limitless potentials in life. Through me, your blessings flow so bountifully to others, in Jesus Name.
3. Thank you, blessed Lord, for my authority in Christ over demons and the powers of darkness. Even now, I walk in the light of this authority by forbidding Satan and his demons from exerting upon or influencing anything that has to do with me. I hold off demonic activities in my family and workplace today, in Jesus Name.
4. Dear Father, what a blessing it is to know that I've been divinely acquitted of all charges. I walk in the light of my justification, and reign over sin, Satan and circumstances. My life is an expression of your righteousness. I'm victorious all the way, serving you joyously without fear or condemnation, in Jesus Name.
5. Precious Father, I thank you for the authority in the Name of Jesus with which we prevail over Satan and his cohorts. By that authority, I cut off principalities and powers, rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places, from every sector, establishment and aspect of government in my nation, in Jesus Name.

THE MERCYFUL GOD ZECHARIAH 10:11

Psalm 103:17 says; “But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear Him, and His righteousness to children’s children,” God is a God of mercy. He does not have mercy today and will not have mercy tomorrow. It is from everlasting to everlasting. Psalm 51:1 says; “Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness; according to the multitude of Your tender mercies, Blot out my transgressions.” The mercy of the Lord can never run dry; it passes from one generation to another. The mercy that He gave to Abraham, He transferred it to Isaac his son, to Jacob the grandson, to Joseph the great grandson. He transferred it to David and to our Lord Jesus Christ. Psalm 86:5 and 15 says; “For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, and abundant in mercy to all those who call upon You...But You, O Lord, are a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering and abundant in mercy and truth.” Instead of complaining, you need to praise the Lord.

Psalm 107:8, 15,21 and 31 all say “Oh, that men would give thanks to the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!” while Psalm 107:16 says; “For He has broken the gates of bronze, and cut the bars of iron in two.” It means that those things that you feel are problems are no more problems, those things that you feel that are troubling you are no longer troubling you, those things that you thought will kill you, will not kill you, those things you see that are difficult are not difficult because He is a merciful God. And God will never condemn you because there is no condemnation to those who are in Christ (Romans 8:1). I beseech you therefore by the mercies of God. He does not judge you, destroy or stand against you, He is a merciful God.

Isaiah 55:10-11 says; “For as the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.” Jeremiah 1:12 says; “Then the Lord said to me, “You have seen well, for I am ready to perform My word.” God is ready to perform His word. He is not a liar. Numbers 23:19 says; “God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent. Has He said, and will He not do? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good?” Psalm 89:34 says; “My covenant I will not break, nor alter the word that has gone out of My lips.”...to be continued.

PRAY FOR YOUR ENEMIES...NOT AGAINST THEM

This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh (Galatians 5:16).

Sometimes, some Christians, while praying, would say, “Whatever evil my enemies have planned against me, Lord, give them double! Anyone who wants me dead, let that one rather die a sudden death!” No, this isn't the right way to pray as a Christian; not when you're full of the Spirit!

Those who pray like that are praying according to the desire of the flesh, not according to the Spirit. Our opening verse says, “... Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust (desire) of the flesh.” It's the desire of the flesh to see the death of your enemies, but the desire of the Spirit is to see their salvation. When you pray against your enemies, that's walking in the flesh; that's praying in the flesh. What God wants is for us to pray in the Spirit: “Praying always with all prayer and supplication IN THE SPIRIT...” (Ephesians 6:18). Stay in the Spirit; don't be perturbed by whatever your enemy may be scheming against you.

Jesus said, “Pray for,” not against, your enemies: “But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you” (Matthew 5:44). You may feel hurt, and upset or angry, but refuse to hate. You're too full of love to hate or curse anyone. You're too sweet in your spirit to be bitter or take record of the wrongs done to you. Don't give attention to your adversaries, for they don't count. It makes no difference how many people gang up against you, they're not a factor. You've been raised together with Christ! Greater is He that's in you than he that's in the world. Read the words of David in Psalm 27:2: “When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.”

There was no need for him to pray against his enemies; they simply took their place: they stumbled and fell. That's the fate of anyone who professes to be your enemy. If they don't repent, they're doomed. But your role is to pray for them, hoping God would grant them repentance unto the acknowledging of the truth.
